PERRY CAMPBELL NAMED VICE PRESIDENT OF QUALITY, AMERICAN WOODMARK

WINCHESTER, VA, June 14, 2006 – American Woodmark Corporation (AWC) (NASDAQ: AMWD), a leading supplier of cabinetry to the new home construction and remodeling industries, announced today that Perry Campbell has been promoted to vice president, quality. In this position, Campbell is responsible for the Company's entire quality function, including the Corporate Quality Organization. Campbell reports directly to Tom Alkire, vice president, product development and quality.

“We are extremely excited to welcome Perry to the Quality Team,” said Alkire. “We look forward to the contributions he will make while reinforcing American Woodmark's commitment to providing customers with a total quality experience.”

Established in May 2005, the Corporate Quality Organization ensures customer satisfaction in every aspect of interaction and business with AWC. The company-wide, comprehensive initiative encompasses quality in all of AWC's services and processes, including manufacturing, product performance, sales and marketing efforts and customer service.
